

DELIVERING THE MESSAGE

VOLUME 5, ISSUE 7 JULY 1, 2010

MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDER

It's been an incredible two years. Michelle and I are so grateful to each of you for the friendship, camaraderie, and mentorship. We have learned so much and been so blessed here. JCU has meant a lot to us and we are honored to have been a part of DOD's Finest.

This is such a fast paced unit, going a hundred miles an hour everyday. It's been great to be able to just let people run. I've been so impressed with the technical ability and dedication of everyone. There is nothing you can't do and you constantly prove that. I smiled every day because I was always receiving feedback on what a great job you were doing either in deployed locations, back here at Ft Bragg, or hearing about our families taking care of each other. Other people are always commenting on what a tight knit group we have and it is so true. In everything our Service Members, Civilians, and Family Members do, you have so much to be proud of.

I'd like to welcome Sam and Jana aboard. They are a smart, caring, and an experienced command team and I know they are looking forward to enjoying JCU as much as Michelle and I have. The unit will continue to thrive with them.

I will miss you all. These two years have meant so much to Michelle and I. If you are in DC over the next year or at Scott AFB for the next two years please look us up. Like they said on the frontier long ago, it's not goodbye, it's "till our next post". I hope to see you again and if there is anything I can do for you please let me know.

~ John

Over the past few weeks, the Troop's automators have been working non-stop to ensure that our networks were in compliance with DoD standards in preparation for an inspection. Well, not only did we pass the inspection, for the 1st time we earned an outstanding rating, thank you to everyone for your efforts in achieving this truly remarkable result in a short amount of time. Thanks also go out to Nate and James along with the fellas from C Troop for putting together the family VTC on Father's Day. Everyone appreciated the opportunity to see their families, although we may have to buy someone a calculator to figure out all the different time zones.

This month we also received some great news finding out that Seth Hogan made the Air Force promotion list for Technical Sergeant; congrats Seth for a well deserved promotion.

Lastly, I have to take time to say goodbye to James Jordahl AKA SGT Yeti, who is scheduled to PCS in the next few weeks to California. James has been in the unit since 2004 and has proven himself to be not only a professional communicator but also someone with invaluable experience who is never at a loss for words. James has given the Troop a countless number of "catch phrases" that I am sure will carry on for quite awhile. Good luck James, and keep in touch.

June has been a month filled with training and plenty of hard work for the men and woman of B-Troop. In prepping for our first deployment validation exercise, everyone has been actively engaged in their part to ensure the best of the best continue to be just that. We had to say good bye to our dear friend and Brochacho, Travis Jenkins and his family as he has moved on to another position within the unit. We also welcome Tim Mallett, Pablo Guerra, and the new graduates of SOROC and their families to B-Troop. We look forward to having you and our old NUG's from last year are very happy to finally pass on the name to our new SOROC members.

~Bow to no one

Just want to say hello to all the C-Troop families out there. I would also like to say thank you for loaning your service member out to us for the first half of the month. We got some much needed training and team bonding out at our training areas and many good stories to go with it. We now know that a good source of power and team unity is the almighty cape and Brent "Hobbit" Borden can walk in one shoe as well as he can with two. It was hot out there and we had some long days but the guys really took advantage of getting away from the compound and learned a lot about how we do business with the equipment. Also, I would like to send a Bravo Zulu out to our guys that supported the commanders conference in Maryland. Miller, Johnson and Robles did a great job and were able to provide the level of support the unit has come to look forward to from C-Troop. I also hear that Robles was able to get them coffee every time just the way they like it, so great job. We are also anxiously awaiting the return of Ryan Akins who is doing great things in South Africa supporting us there. Olympia better get your Vuvuzela ready, Double A may have a hard time falling asleep without the drone of 50,000 of those every single day. I would also like to say great job to everyone that completed their service PT test. Navy, Marines and Army all did their PT test and performed outstanding. Now some of you can stop starving yourselves and eat like normal people again. Next month we look forward to spending time with great family and friends over the 4th of July weekend and getting some much needed marksmanship training in. As always, if you need anything don't hesitate to contact our key caller, Kim Melby, or the leadership for all your C-Troop needs.

Leave was fantastic and it certainly came to an end way too soon. Now it's time to get knee deep in training and I mean good training. For example, our most recent training event had spending quality time at the gas chamber. I couldn't convince the team not to go. They were all so optimistic that they would get to watch Dave Kelly barf. Fun! We also had some great medical refresher training and spent some time doing good old fashioned Army training at the range. Some of D Troop enjoyed the good times that SERE had to offer. Again, too much fun! I would like to send out congratulations to MSG Moak for her recent promotion and to SSgt Hollingshead for his selection for TSgt. Also, congratulations to SFC Woosley and SSG Walle for their graduation from Airborne school and good luck to SSgt Kevin Hudson who's attending 82nd Pre-Ranger. Lastly, we are saying farewell to the following teammates that have moved on to other sections within the command: ETC Matthews, SSgt Wright, and IT1 Boyer. We will miss you but we look forward to seeing you on the playing field!

Hello everyone, this is Scott Bachand filling in for Bryan Fooshee as he is off globetrotting and jet-setting around the world. Scott Hamilton completed his first rotation for us and we are sure Emily has quite the honey-do list for her man waiting at home. Sean Collins replaced Scott and as of yet is having a successful first rotation of his own. Sergio and family were smart enough to escape the heat and are vacationing in CA. Gama, as always, has shouldered more than his share of the load in the lab and is heading off on a well deserved West Coast vacation of his own... we wish him cold cervezas! Sam spent a good portion of June on the road making some great things happen in the DC area. Jeremy Robinson has been grinding it out in our trailer park... but he pops into the big house every once in a while. We sent Dan off into the woods for some much needed R&R, hopefully he will come back in one piece. Brian Zebrowski is trying to stay out of trouble in his new found bachelorhood as his wife and kids are off visiting family in WI/IL/TN for the month. Greg Nicoson is embracing the heat and decided it's the perfect time of year to grow a beard... we are all hoping it fills in soon before the nicknames get out of hand.

Above: Morgan Smario makes his gas chamber face as he comes out after unmasking in the chamber. The idea is to keep your mask on, that's what it's for in the first place, sweet picture though!

Well summer is here in full force. I know a lot of G-Troopers and their family members are starting to enjoy some much deserved vacation time with the family. Congratulations to the Otero's, Brossard's, Schaffer's, and the Guerra's on your wedding anniversaries this month. G-Troop would like to wish the McLaughlin family all the best and thank you for all the time and support. G-Troop has had a lot of moving parts and I would like to welcome Mike Foy back home. Thanks for a job well done. Speaking of great work thanks to the AIS team for the outstanding work during our network inspection. The whole group helped the command earn outstanding results. Kelly has asked me to relay to all that we are going to be doing a G-Troop get together this month in downtown Fayetteville during Fourth Friday. More information will be sent via email soon.

Thanks
~ Bryan

Hello from M-Troop. We have survived the hot weather this month and in the process, achieved some amazing things in the troop. The Electronics shop has been busy completing multiple projects for the unit and enjoying some time off on leave. Trust me it was well deserved! Congratulations to Ameer Weston for receiving the Bronze Star Medal. This award was well earned. I would also like to say congratulations to MSgt Chris Smith who was recently STEP promoted. This is a rare occurrence and extremely well deserved. Steve Powell and Russ Pinard are deployed and doing an absolutely superb job down range. Hang in there Steve, I know that you are super busy! The rest of the crew has been busy building new communications packages and supporting the line troops in any way they can. Penny and the LRS crew are doing an incredible job of not only meeting their daily requirements but also re-aligning the office to provide a greater service to the unit. Their actions show that they go above and beyond every day. Scott Knox and the Motor Pool crew are juggling tasks daily. They are the best at what they do and are in demand by everyone in the unit. Scott has done a great job ensuring that our newest communication vehicle is working like a champ and the rest of the guys are pulling the load in the shop. Mike, Roger, and Andy, keep up the stellar work. Carleen and Jesse in the configuration management section are in the process of re-vamping the way that we track all network and communication configurations. It will definitely simplify package turnovers as well as on the fly troubleshooting. Carleen is awesome at the portal! Just ask Smitty and he will tell you! Last and certainly not least, we would all like to say thanks to the families of the M-Troop members for supporting them in all their endeavors.

Hello everyone, Over the past month Class 01-10 graduated and have moved to their perspective sections. Congratulations Class 01-10. Great job Jamie. I would like to welcome the new personnel to the unit. It will be an incredibly busy month for SOROC Class 02-10. S&T would like to extend a farewell to Chris Kudel. Chris will be moving on to another section within the unit. Thanks for all your hard work and dedication, good luck with your new position. We would like to welcome Gabriel Boyer to S&T. I would like to inform the new unit members that my wife Kim will be the key caller for Class 02-10 and her contact information is on the last page under JCU FRG Key Callers.

Take Care,

Right: Chad Peters is awarded the Bronze Star Medal by COL McLaughlin in a ceremony held on 28 JUN 10

Mark this day in history – for the first time, during my tenure as the EC Detachment Chief, the entire team will be in the office and present for duty – at the same time, Army and Marine Corps! With this, I am certain of a few things; claustrophobia will set in, there will be not stop laughter, and I will undoubtedly be harassed and ridiculed through sarcastic comments because it's "just the cool thing to do". I realize, however, that it's just their way of telling me they have missed me! It's good to have everyone home and especially good to see those who have only recently returned (Tigo and Jimmy). They have been doing excellent things forward and deserve a break (however brief). I am sure they will enjoy the time with their families as we will enjoy having them back in the workspace. Welcome home, gentlemen!

Unfortunately, we will not have a full house very long, as the "Air Commando" (Rob) and Marcus are preparing to go forward and Mark is headed to school to, hopefully, acquire the skills necessary to interact with people other than Marines. I am sure that Rob and Mark will be successful in their endeavors (not so sure about the other guy – only time will tell). Until next time, cheers!

~ Marcus

JCU Families,
 Wow! Has it been two years already? The Service Members and families of JCU have been such an inspiration to us.....the strength, resiliency, and dedication are unmatched to any other unit. I was consistently amazed at the way the Service Members worked together like a well oiled machine.....as such a cohesive team, always keeping the objective in the forefront but still able to enjoy leisure time together.

It was refreshing to witness such commitment to the "mission" by the families as well. The spouses I met have been so supportive and understanding of their service member, frequently putting their plans on hold. It is such a unique spouse that can identify the passion that the service member has for their unit and be able to encourage, love and support them for what they do. This frequently means dealing with them spending much time away from home and family, picking up the extra tasks around the home front, and attending socials. Thank you for the sacrifices you make each and every day; it is truly what makes them able to do the very best! I believe it is also what makes you such an amazing group. I encourage you to continue to lean on each other. I have said it so many times before but "no one understands what you are going through any better than the other spouses going through it with you". During times of trial, look left and right at the "sisters" that you have in the unit and allow them to nurture you. There is no shame in asking for help when needed.

Thank you for allowing me to get to know so many of you.....allowing me to participate in the special moments of your lives.....births, birthdays, baby showers, bridal showers, socials, luncheons, etc. I will treasure these memories forever. You truly have been an inspiration to me. Thank goodness for Facebook so we can continue to keep in touch! Hope to see you in the future.

Best of luck to you all!
 Michelle

ANSWER TO LAST MONTHS RETRO JCU ? (DID YOU GUESS CORRECTLY?)

The picture from last month is none other than Mr. Bill Tingen from G-Troop. This picture was taken in 1970 when "Little Bill" was 4 years old in Richmond, Virginia. The smile says it all, a very mischievous youngster that grew up to be a Special Forces soldier. Bill served many years in JCU before retiring and becoming the go-to guy with all the continuity of G-Troop. Thank you Bill for your service to this great Nation and for sharing a little piece of your life with us.

There's a new club in town. The JCU Purple Monkeys Motorcycle Club held its inaugural lunchtime ride this month. We had nine riders of all types and abilities. We enjoyed a 30 mile ride out towards Camp MacKall where we ate some great burritos and tacos. We are planning two rides a month to bring together all the JCU riders for a great friendship building experience and to help the novice riders develop their riding abilities. The Grand Marshall for the group is the Great Joe "Purple Monkey" Miller. Our next ride is planned for June 30th, so if you ride and you're free please join us.
